

SERving as a Board Member for State Licensure of Interpreters, it is imperative that the FCC establish a minimum standard of the REGistry of Interpreters for the Deaf, National Interpreter Certification (NIC) test as a minimum guarantee of quality services being provided by the government. Especially in emergency situations or conversations which can greatly impact the health, legal and social circumstances of this part of our society. Its the only way the FCC can protect the public. Thank you.